Helping Dogs to get better – The Holistic Approach

10 a.m. 18 October, 2014

Withington Village Hall, Coppice Close, Withington, Hereford, Herefordshire HR1 3PP

An interesting talk and acupuncture demonstration from Holistic Vet, Dr Iris Ege will discuss how to manage Pain, Gastro-Intestinal Problems and Epilepsy. Dr Iris Ege uses her background as a vet to explain and improve our understanding of the responses from the dog. She explains why exercise and diet can make a big difference and how Herbs, Acupuncture and Physiotherapy can help.

Herbs treat a broad range of conditions gently and effectively. Some can be safely used as teas. In other cases the skilful formulation of an herbal prescription and sourcing good quality extracts is important.

Tea and Cake are available in aid of GRWE.

All Creatures Great and Small: The holistic Approach for Animals

Exhibition of Healing & Complementary Therapies

Sunday, 2nd November, 2014, Priory School, Longden Road, Shrewsbury SY3 9EE

There is a lot you can do for your animal. As a qualified vet Dr Iris Ege will explain how to spot problems and what to do about it. She explains how diet, exercise and herbs can help and how acupuncture and physiotherapy work.

An asthmatic cat, a dog with hip dysplasia and a horse with laminitis are only some of the patients Iris is going to talk about. She is also going to do acupuncture demos on dogs. If you can come, your dog doesn't mind being watched and would benefit from acupuncture please contact Iris regards a demo treatment. Iris will be holding her talk and demonstration between 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. but will be on hand from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. to discuss your requirements. For more information:
